I was introduced to deliverance before I had even heard the word. I was then water baptized in flowing water on Pentecost, before I understood its significance. I had also been baptized in the Holy Spirit before receiving formal teaching in deliverance. I was following His leading, learning as I went. As I experienced the Holy Spirit moving powerfully in my life, including encounters I understood as spiritual manifestations, I began seeking a deeper understanding of what He was doing.

Pastor Henry Shaffer was my first teacher in deliverance. I continued studying the teachings of other ministers, including Daniel Duval, founder of Bride Ministries. Later, Robert Henderson, author and apostolic teacher known for his Courts of Heaven teachings, helped deepen my understanding. I attended the grand opening of his ministry location in Colorado Springs, Colorado, where I served as an intercessor, praying and ministering healing in the name of Jesus Christ.

Today, I study under Mike Brewer, co-author with Andrea Brewer of Bloodline Deliverance, and am part of his referral team. I work alongside my own team of intercessors, and I continue to learn. Throughout this journey, I believe the Holy Spirit has led me to teachers who have helped me grow while continually drawing me back to Scripture and dependence on Him.

I led my first group in Orlando and flew there to minister water baptism and anointing on New Year's Eve 2025. I later began a second online group, which currently has approximately 80 members. I also teach several groups and minister remotely with people in Afghanistan and Kenya. On Tuesday nights, I lead a Prayer and Prophecy call, where we help and encourage others through prayer and the power of the Holy Spirit. I have also been invited to speak and minister in healing at a tent revival in New York.

The Holy Spirit has anointed me to lay hands on people and minister in the name of Jesus Christ. My personal testimony includes more than 100 experiences of deliverance and healing through the power of the Holy Spirit. My heart is to help people grow in their relationship with Jesus, understand His Word and walk in the freedom found in Him.

I give Jesus Christ the glory.
